

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JONATHAN DOYLE

NO. 3:15-CR-00496-L

PLEA AGREEMENT

Jonathan Doyle, the defendant, Richard B. Roper, the defendant's attorney, and the United States of America (the government) agree as follows:

1. Rights of the defendant: The defendant understands that the defendant has the rights:

- a. to plead not guilty;
- b. to have a trial by jury;
- c. to have the defendant's guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
- d. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in the defendant's defense; and
- e. against compelled self-incrimination.

2. Waiver of rights and plea of guilty: The defendant waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offense alleged in Count Seven of the Superseding Indictment, charging a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371, that is, conspiracy to Introduce Misbranded Food into Interstate Commerce with Intent to Defraud and Mislead. The defendant understands the nature and elements of the crime to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume the defendant has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence: The maximum penalties the Court can impose include:
 - a. imprisonment for a period not to exceed 5 years;
 - b. a fine not to exceed $250,000, or twice any pecuniary gain to the defendant or loss to the victim(s);
 - c. a term of supervised release of not more than 3 years, which may be mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates the conditions of supervised release, the defendant could be imprisoned for the entire term of supervised release;
 - d. a mandatory special assessment of $100;
 - e. restitution to victims or to the community, which is mandatory under the law, and which the defendant agrees may include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, not limited to that arising from the offense of conviction alone;
 - f. costs of incarceration and supervision; and
 - g. forfeiture of property.

4. Immigration consequences: The defendant recognizes that pleading guilty may have consequences with respect to the defendant's immigration status if the defendant is not a citizen of the United States. Under federal law, a broad range of crimes are removable offenses. The defendant understands this may include the offense to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and for purposes of this plea agreement, the defendant assumes the offense is a removable offense. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding, however, and the defendant understands that no one, including the defendant's attorney or the district court, can predict to a certainty the effect of the defendant's conviction on the defendant's immigration status. The defendant nevertheless affirms that the defendant wants to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that the defendant's plea of guilty may entail, even if the consequence is the defendant's automatic removal from the United States.

5. Court's sentencing discretion and role of the Guidelines: The defendant understands that the sentence in this case will be imposed by the Court after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The guidelines are not binding on the Court, but are advisory only. The defendant has reviewed the guidelines with the defendant's attorney, but understands no one can predict with certainty the outcome of the Court's consideration of the guidelines in this case. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11(c)(1)(B), the government recommends that the appropriate term of imprisonment in this case is for not more than 48 months. However, the defendant understands that this recommendation is not binding on the Court, and the defendant will not be allowed to withdraw the defendant's plea if the recommendation is not adopted, if the applicable advisory guideline range is higher than expected, or if the Court departs from the applicable guideline range. The defendant fully understands that the actual sentence imposed (so long as it is within the statutory maximum) is solely in the discretion of the Court.

6. Mandatory special assessment: Prior to sentencing, the defendant agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $100, in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case.

7. Defendant's agreement: The defendant shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning the defendant's participation in the offense of conviction. Upon demand, the defendant shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding the defendant's capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution. The defendant expressly authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to immediately obtain a credit report on the defendant in order to evaluate the defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court. The defendant fully understands that any financial obligation imposed by the Court, including a restitution order and/or the implementation of a fine, is due and payable immediately. In the event the Court imposes a schedule for payment of restitution, the defendant agrees that such a schedule represents a minimum payment obligation and does not preclude the United States Attorney's Office from pursuing any other means by which to satisfy the defendant's full and immediately enforceable financial obligation. The defendant understands that the defendant has a continuing obligation to pay in full as soon as possible any financial obligation imposed by the Court.

8. Forfeiture of property: The defendant, individually and as the authorized representative for the entities listed in the property descriptions below, including Doyle Family Investments LLC (DFI 1); DFI2; DFI3; DFI3 DE LLC; JVD DE LLC; DVJ-ETH

LLC; GS-ETH LLC; ETH Insurance Company Inc.; and M19 Eleven Insurance Company (“the Entities”), agrees not to contest, challenge, or appeal in any way the administrative or judicial (civil or criminal) forfeiture to the United States of any property seized or restrained by the government related to the investigation of this case or noted as subject to forfeiture in the superseding indictment in this case, including, but not limited to, the following:

pp. 2013 Mercedes Benz ML350, VIN 4JGDA5JB2DA168066.

rr. 2012 Ford Expedition, VIN 1FMJU1K50CEF01609.

The defendant, individually and as the authorized representative for the Entities, waives all right, title, and interest in this property, and agrees that this property is subject to criminal forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 334, 28 U.S.C. § 2461(c) and 21 U.S.C. § 853 as proceeds obtained from the sale of misbranded food in the underlying conspiracy and replacing the sold product, as well as civil forfeiture pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 981(a)(1)(A) as property involved in a money laundering conspiracy and 18 U.S.C. 981(a)(1)(C) as proceeds of conspiracy to commit wire fraud. The defendant, individually and as the authorized representative for the Entities, consents to entry of any orders or declarations of forfeiture, administrative or judicial, regarding this property and waives any and all requirements (including notice of forfeiture in the charging instrument) set out in 19 U.S.C. §§ 1607-1609; 18 U.S.C. §§ 981, 982, and 983; 21 U.S.C. §§ 334, 853, and 881; the Code of Federal Regulations; and Rules 11 and 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant, individually and as the authorized representative for the Entities, agrees to provide truthful information, evidence, and cooperation necessary for the government to forfeit this property. In the event some or all of this property cannot be seized and/or forfeited by the defendant, individually and/or as the authorized representative for the Entities, the defendant, individually and as the authorized representative for the Entities, to immediately convert that property to funds that are subject to forfeiture, administrative and/or judicial and turn those over to the government for forfeiture pursuant to this Plea Agreement. The defendant, individually and as the authorized representative for the Entities, agrees to hold the government, its officers, agents, and employees harmless from any claim whatsoever in connection with the seizure, restraint, forfeiture, storage, or disposal of this property.

9. Government's agreement: The government will not bring any additional charges against the defendant based upon the conduct underlying and related to the defendant's plea of guilty. The government will file a Supplement in this case, as is routinely done in every case, even though there may or may not be any additional terms. The government will dismiss, after sentencing, any remaining charges in the pending indictment. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas as well as the Consumer Protection Branch of the United States Department of Justice and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against the defendant or any property. The government agrees to release the following property from the forfeiture proceedings in this case:

f. All funds, monies, and things of value contained in Account #XXXX-4499, in the name of XXXXX at Charles Schwab.

mm. The real property located at 4723 Royal Lane, Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, more specifically described as Lot 4, Block 1/5503 of Royal Gardens Addition, an Addition to the City of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas, According to the Map thereof recorded in Volume 15, Page 139, of the Map Records of Dallas County, Texas.

In the event USPLabs LLC and its controlling principals, including the defendant, Jacobo Geissler, and/or Matthew Hebert agree to plead guilty and reach an agreement with the government to resolve the civil liability for USPLabs LLC and its principals arising from the conduct underlying the offense to which the defendant is pleading guilty (essentially, restitution that could be ordered in this case) using some of the funds restrained, the government agrees to release an amount from forfeited funds listed above (following entry of a preliminary order of forfeiture) that is representative of the defendant's ownership interest in USP Labs LLC (45%) to allocate to this payment. The government will therefore cease forfeiture proceedings against the funds allocated to pay the civil liability (the restitution that could be ordered in this case).

g. Violation of agreement: The defendant understands that if the defendant violates any provision of this agreement, or if the defendant's guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute the defendant for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, the defendant waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, the defendant also waives objection to the use against the defendant of any information or statements the defendant has provided to the government, and any resulting leads.

h. Voluntary plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

i. Waiver of right to appeal or otherwise challenge sentence: The defendant waives the defendant's rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal the conviction, sentence, fine and order of restitution or forfeiture in an amount to be determined by the district court. The defendant further waives the defendant's right to contest the conviction, sentence, fine and order of restitution or forfeiture in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. The defendant further waives the defendant's right to seek any future reduction in the defendant's sentence (e.g., based on a change in sentencing guidelines or statutory law). The defendant, however, reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal of (i) a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of the defendant's plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

j. Representation of counsel: The defendant has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with the defendant's attorney and is fully satisfied with that lawyer's legal representation. The defendant has received from the defendant's attorney explanations satisfactory to the defendant concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of the defendant's rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to the defendant other than entering into this agreement. Because the defendant concedes that the defendant is guilty, and after conferring with the defendant's attorney, the defendant has concluded that it is in the defendant's best interest to enter into this plea agreement and all its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case.

k. Entirety of agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties. This agreement supersedes any and all other promises, representations, understandings, and agreements that are or were made between the parties at any time before the guilty plea is entered in court. No promises or representations have been made by the United States except as set forth in writing in this plea agreement.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this 15th day of February, 2019.
